ABOUT LOS ANGELES COUNTY

The County of Los Angeles has a demographically and geographically diverse population of more than 10 million residents. As the largest employer in Southern California with over 100,000 employees in more than 37 departments, Los Angeles County provides vital and wide-ranging public services to its citizens. County recreation facilities and parks range from majestic rock formations, the nation's largest publicly owned golf course system, and the iconic Hollywood Bowl to lakes, swimming pools, and neighborhood playgrounds.

ABOUT PARKS AND RECREATION

Los Angeles County Parks and Recreation provides the public with diverse and unique recreational services and activities that promote good health, education, and a sense of community. With a $232 million budget and over 1,600 full-time positions, services include regional and local park facilities, nature centers, natural areas, trails, and botanic gardens.

- 71,249 acres of parks, lakes, trails, natural areas, and botanical gardens
- 183 regional and community parks where children are introduced to outdoor play, organized sports, and individual skill development
- The nation's largest municipal golf course system with 20 courses featuring beautiful vistas from the mountains to the ocean
- 210 miles of multi-use trails
- 42 public swimming pools

The Department has teamed with the private sector to offer additional amenities at its parks, including boat and bicycle rentals, hot tubs, recreational vehicle parks, equestrian rentals and boarding, the water park, and management of our performing centers and arboreta and botanical gardens. A series of nature centers, natural parks and habitat preserves provide education on native flora and fauna, while our four arboreta and botanical gardens introduce visitors to plants from throughout the world.

PRIORITIES

As the County's provider of recreational facilities and programs serving over 50 million visitors annually, the Department is home to dynamic, inclusive, and community-focused services and programming, enriching the lives of children, youth, adults, older adults, and families.

THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES
IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

OPPORTUNITY

An unsurpassed executive leadership opportunity to make a difference by expanding equitable access to parks that serve all of Los Angeles County's communities and urban populations, the most diverse and populous county in the nation.

This unclassified position oversees the Planning and Development Agency and plays an instrumental role to ensure that County parks, trails, and buildings are well planned, designed, constructed, and preserved; socially and culturally relevant; equitably located; physically accessible; and safe. Join an award-winning Department that promotes equity and inclusion by prioritizing work in our most vulnerable and underserved communities.

Planning Division oversees master planning, environmental compliance, land management, sustainability and trails planning, while Development Division oversees design and construction project management. Together, Planning and Development Agency provides essential mission-led guidance and technical support for the Department and leads efforts to identify and implement sound strategies that promote positive, equity-focused, environmentally just and sustainable results.
